Cover image: The cover image shows Jo Bodeon, a back-roper in the mule room at Chace Cotton Mill. Burlington, Vermont. This and other similar images in this book were taken by Lewis W. Hine, in the period between 1908-1912. These images as well as social campaigns by many including Hine, helped to formulate America's anti-child labour laws.

Newspaper's were required to be taxed under Ordinance Act 26 of 1826.

Figure 1: Complete Government Gazette, Franked & Taxed by 1d revenue stamp. Sure the amount was some form of "wealth tax." Estimate AAA£AAAA; 350.

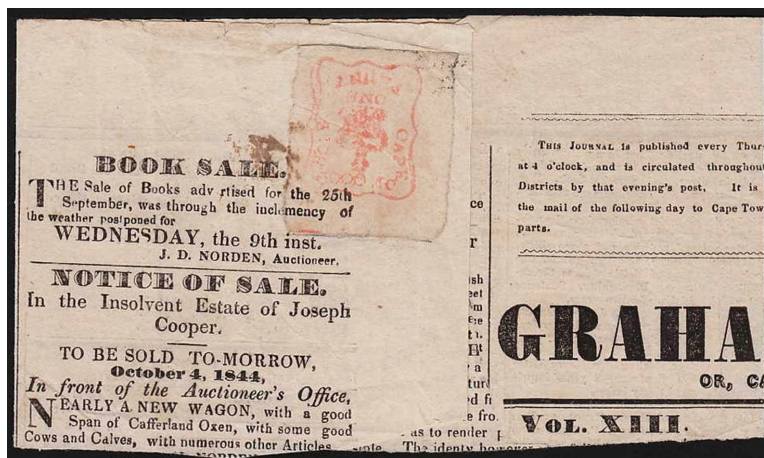

Figure 2: Cape of Good Hope very scarce 1d Pre-printed Newspaper Duty Stamp on part Graham's Town Journal of Thursday October 3 1844. It can be clearly seen that the pre-printed duty stamp was placed on the paper before the newspaper was printed as part of the paper's printing is actually on the stamp.
