Cover image: The cover image shows Jo Bodeon, a back-roper in the mule room at Chace Cotton Mill. Burlington, Vermont. This and other similar images in this book were taken by Lewis W. Hine, in the period between 1908-1912. These images as well as social campaigns by many including Hine, helped to formulate America's anti-child labour laws.

Revenue Stamp on Newspapers

1835 Complete "Grahamstown Journal" of August 13, bearing at top right 1d embossed Newspaper stamp in orange-red, imperforate, a dry print but undoubtedly Sherwood C282a, usage split at right.

Apparently ONLY ONE KNOWN on complete newspaper. Printed subscription rates at top refer to postage being included and suggest that the stamp paid both the newspaper duty and the postage (as was the case in the UK).

Two others recorded on newspaper fragments (Burrus Ferrary, 1836 edition of same newspaper), an exceptional item
